

JAPAN SOCIETY JUNIOR FELLOWS LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

June 29—July 14, 2024

Immerse yourself in Japanese culture and connect with leaders from Japan and the United States!

What The Junior Fellows Leadership Program is a culturally immersive learning and leadership program that takes place in Japan.

Where Students stay in the Tokyo metropolitan area and Aizu-Wakamatsu, Fukushima (Northeast Japan).

When June 29–July 14, 2024

Who 10 selected high school students between 9th-11th grade (at the time of application), who possess strong leadership skills and demonstrate the potential to become future leaders.

Application Applications for the 2024 program will be available in late November 2023. Submission deadline is February 9th, 2024

Tuition $3,500. Limited need-based scholarships available. Japan Society donors and supporters underwrite a significant portion of the total cost of the program.

Program Highlights Meet with current leaders in business, the arts, science, nonprofit organizations and other fields; design and carry out a project on a topic of interest related to a global issue; live with a Japanese family; experience Japanese school life; visit important cultural and historic sites; learn basic, communicative Japanese during introductory language lessons; connect with previous Japanese and American Junior Fellows; become a member of the Junior Fellows Alumni Association (JFAA).

For more information, contact the Education Department at Japan Society at (212) 715-1275/1216 or jfellows@japansociety.org.

The Japan Society Junior Fellows Leadership program is supported by generous grants from an anonymous family foundation, and Hiroko Onoyama. Transportation assistance is provided by All Nippon Airways Co., Ltd.