

333 East 47th Street
New York, NY 10017
japansociety.org

JAPAN SOCIETY JUNIOR FELLOWS LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

ONLINE PROGRAM: JUNE 26—AUGUST 1, 2021
(select after-school hours and weekends)

Connect with global leaders from Japan and the United States!

What: The Junior Fellows Leadership Program is a global leadership program that connects future leaders from Japan and the U.S.

Where: Online

When: June 26—August 1, 2021

Who: 10 selected high school students between 9th-11th grade (at the time of application), who possess strong leadership skills and demonstrate the potential to become future leaders.

Applications for the 2021 program are available at japansociety.org/junior_fellows.

Program Highlights: Meet with current leaders in business, the arts, science, nonprofit organizations and other fields; design and carry out a team project on a topic from Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs); learn about Japanese high school life via online exchange with Japanese high school students; join a special workshop on leadership; connect with previous Japanese and American Junior Fellows; and become a member of the Junior Fellows Alumni Association (JFAA) to continue expanding your network through various alumni activities.

Tuition: Ten finalists will be invited to participate in the online Junior Fellows Leadership Program at no cost in 2021.

For more information, contact the Education Department at Japan Society at (212) 715-1275/1216 or juniorfellows@japansociety.org.

The Japan Society Junior Fellows Leadership program is supported by generous grants from an anonymous family foundation, ITO EN (North America) INC., Mitsubishi Corporation (Americas), the Wendy Obernauer Foundation, THE TOKYO CLUB, Sony Corporation of America, and The Norinchukin Foundation.

Additional support is provided by All Nippon Airways Co., Ltd.

