SPECIAL TOPIC: JAPANESE LEVEL 11 (Prerequisite: minimum of three semesters of Japanese 10 or equivalent)

One of the most successful, highly-developed storytelling tools in Japan is manga. In this class, we will read revealing stories to examine various aspects of Japanese society. In addition to engaging in lively discussions, students will practice colloquialism as well as keigo. Manga is especially rich with onomatopoeia. Imagine being stranded in a haunted mansion, a chill running down your spine, and hearing every creak of the floor boards. Onomatopoeia gives you that impact. It lets you experience the world with all of your heightened senses. Most importantly, the compelling stories you'll read in this class will motivate you to continue learning more Japanese.

This class will be particularly helpful in reinforcing these skill sets:

- 単語: Learn a wide range of vocabulary and expressions
- 音読: Read aloud and act with your voice
- 文化: Learn about the complex relationships of family, friends, and others
- 会話: Discuss social and cultural implications and express your point of view
- 読解: Read various genres and recognize the central themes and character motivation.
