2020 SUMMER
KANJI WORKSHOP
- FUNDAMENTALS OF KANJI -

Why is stroke order important? Why are there multiple readings of the same Kanji? Is there an efficient and less painful way to learn new ones? What can I do to overcome my “Kanji allergy?”

In this workshop, you will be guided through the fundamental concepts of Kanji structure, bushu (radicals), on & kun readings, and more.

For students in Levels 1–4, this is a perfect introduction to Kanji.
For students in Levels 5–9, this will be an excellent opportunity to revisit the fundamentals of Kanji to reinforce your existing and future Kanji knowledge.

Join us in this fun, hands-on workshop and get a jumpstart toward reading and writing Japanese with more confidence!

The workshop is taught by Ms. Kazue Kurahara. Ms. Kurahara earned a BA from Hunter College and an MA in Teaching Japanese as a Foreign Language from NYU. She holds teaching certifications in both Japanese and English as a Second Language. She has taught Japanese at various institutions, including New York University, Hunter College, Pace University, and The New School. She is currently hosting Japan Society’s YouTube series "Uki Uki NihonGO! + Culture.

Summer Japanese Courses
May 18 - July 31
Thirteen levels of Japanese, from beginning to advanced, emphasize conversation, listening, reading, and writing. Four levels of kanji courses and special topic courses are also offered.

Summer Shodo Courses
May 18 - July 31
These hands on courses introduce the techniques of Shodo, an art form using a brush and charcoal ink on paper, wood plaques, and fabric. It includes Chinese characters (kanji) and Japanese hiragana. Although it originated in the techniques used for letter writing, with its unique form of expression it has developed into an art genre.
